

TO: Fifth NASA Microgravity Environment Interpretation Tutorial Attendees

FROM: Kenol Jules / NASA Glenn/6727
Principal Investigator Microgravity Services Project Scientist

DATE: March 5th, 2002

SUBJECT: Welcome

Dear Colleagues,

It is my pleasure to welcome you all to the NASA-Glenn fifth annual Microgravity Environment Interpretation Tutorial (MEIT). It is my hope that you will find the tutorial very beneficial to your educational enrichment. This class is made up of participants with a rich and diverse background in microgravity such as: life science, fluid physics, combustion, biotech, material, payload developers and so on. So, do take the opportunity while you are here to get to know your colleagues for I'm sure you will learn a lot from each other through such interaction.

The PIMS staff is here to assist you, in case you have any problems or questions. So, please let us know, if we can make your stay here more enjoyable.

Again, I wish you all an enjoyable stay in Cleveland!

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Kenol Jules".

Kenol Jules

PIMS Project Scientist
NASA Glenn Research Center